Once there was a man
called Geppetto.

Geppetto made puppets.
One day he made a puppet called Pinocchio.

“I wish Pinocchio was a real boy,” said Geppetto.

That night a fairy came to the house.

The fairy waved her wand.

“I can move!” said Pinocchio.

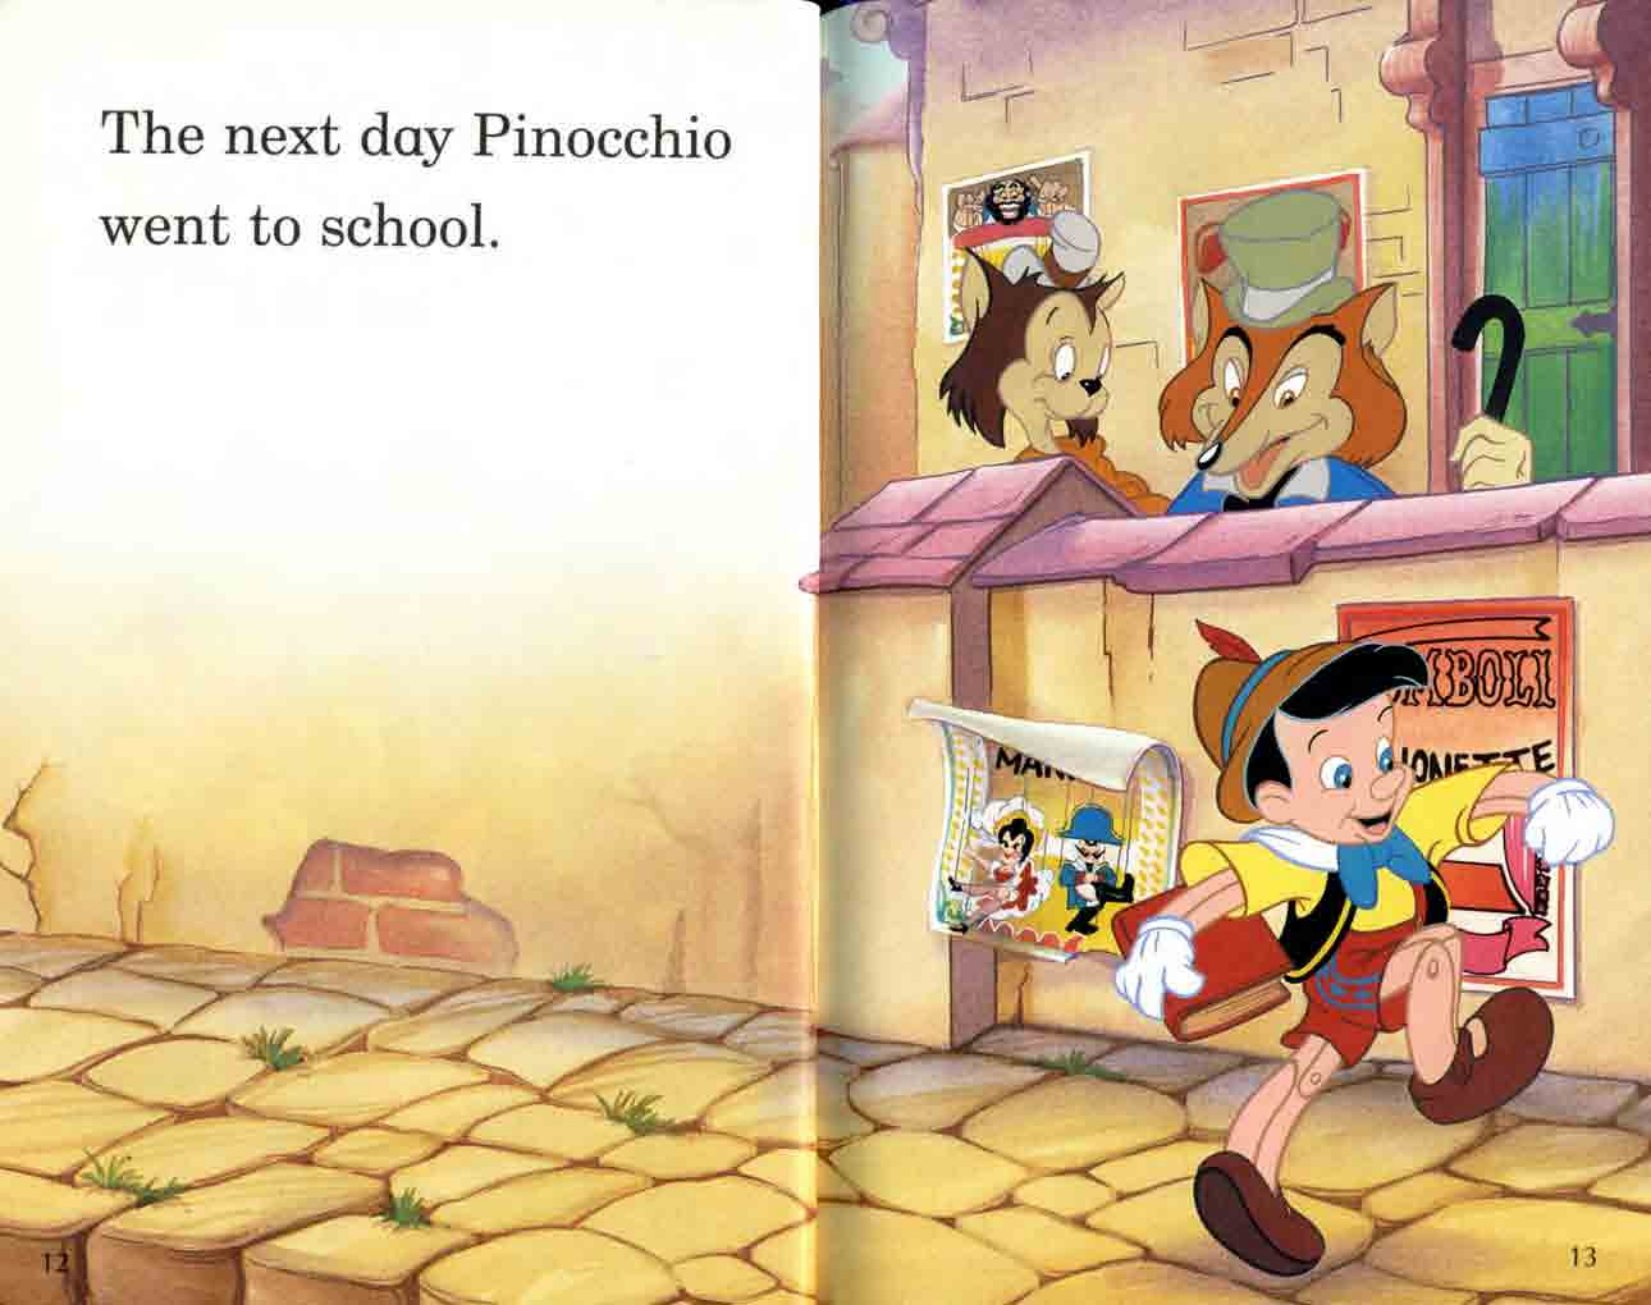

“One day you will be a real boy,” said the fairy.

Geppetto woke up and saw Pinocchio.

He was very happy.
They danced and sang.

The next day Pinocchio went to school.

On the way to school
Pinocchio saw a puppet show.

He sang and danced with the puppets.

Stromboli owned the puppet show.

He locked Pinocchio in a cage with his friend Jiminy Cricket.

The fairy came to help
Pinocchio.

Pinocchio told the fairy a lie.

His nose got bigger and bigger.

“I will never tell a lie again,” said Pinocchio.

The fairy waved her wand.

The cage opened and Pinocchio jumped out.

On the way home Pinocchio met some boys.

He went to play with them.

“You must go home,”
said Jiminy Cricket.

“No,” said Pinocchio.
“I like it here.”

The boys turned into donkeys.

Pinocchio grew ears and a tail. He ran home with Jiminy Cricket.

The letter said that Geppetto had been swallowed by a whale.

Pinocchio went to find Geppetto.

He jumped into the sea.

The whale swallowed Pinocchio.

He found Geppetto.

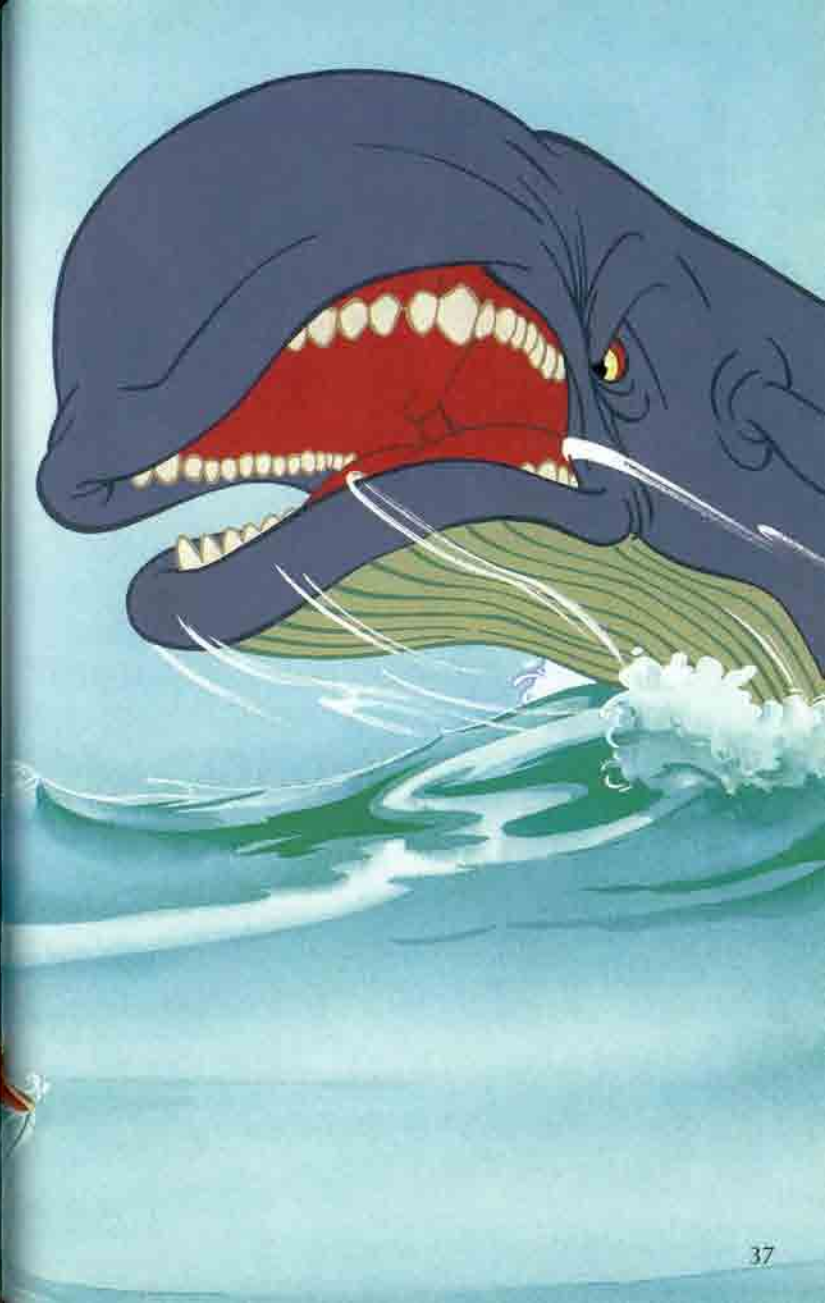

Pinocchio and Geppetto made a fire.

The fire made the whale sneeze. Pinocchio and Geppetto came out of the whale's mouth.

The whale was angry.

He went after Pinocchio and Geppetto.

Pinocchio pulled Geppetto out of the sea.

Then he fell down.

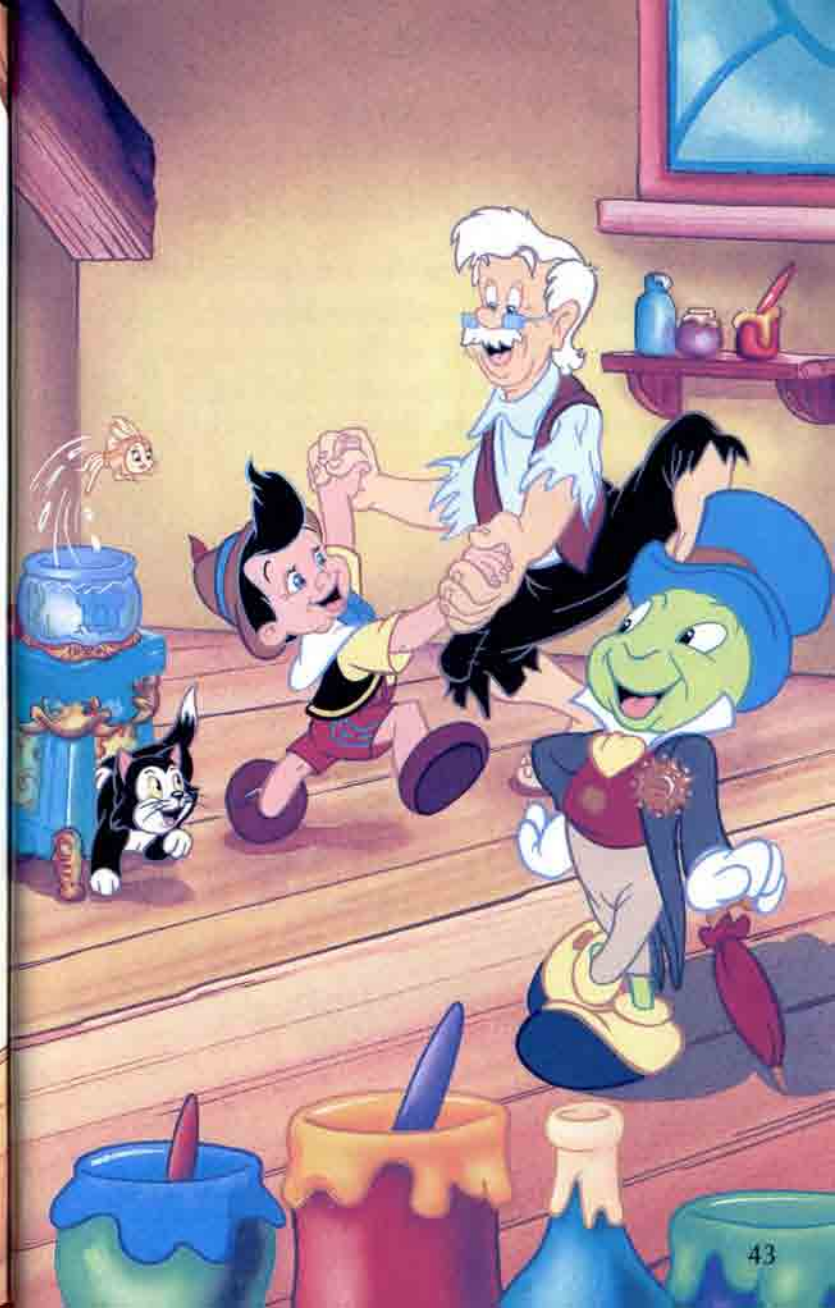

Geppetto took Pinocchio home.

The fairy turned Pinocchio into a real boy.

Geppetto and Pinocchio were very happy.

They sang and danced
all night.

Read it yourself is a series of graded readers designed to give young children a confident and successful start to reading.

Level 2 is for children who are familiar with some simple words and can read short sentences. Each story in this level contains frequently repeated phrases, which help children to read more fluently.

About this book

The story is told in a way which uses regular repetition of the main words and phrases. This enables children to recognise the words more and more easily as they progress through the book. An adult can help them to do this by pointing at the first letter of each word, and sometimes making the sound that the letter makes. Children will probably need less help as the story progresses.

Beginner readers need plenty of help and encouragement.

Read it yourself Level 2

- Simple sentences and vocabulary
- Clear type
- Exciting illustrations closely matched to the story
