Preface

English level required for this book

This book contains almost 200 exercises designed to practice the non-technical vocabulary you will need when writing a research manuscript in English. It is aimed at students and researchers of any discipline whose first language is not English. It is assumed that you have already reached a sufficient level of English to read and understand a research paper in your particular field. You may find some technical words in the exercises that you are not familiar with. You can simply ignore such words – they should not prevent you from being able to complete the exercise.

Structure of the book

Chapters 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5 practice vocabulary in terms of grammatical function (e.g., adjectives and adverbs, link words, nouns, prepositions, and verbs). The other chapters deal with false friends, synonyms, and spelling issues, as well as useful phrases for research papers and emails (to colleagues and editors).

There are many more exercises on verbs than on nouns. If you wish to practice the difference between, for example, identification and detection, or proposal and recommendation, and you cannot find such words in the index (page 191), then look under the related verbs (identify, detect, propose, recommend). Generally speaking, the difference between two nouns is likely to be the same difference as between the two related verbs.

Self-study and classroom use

All of the exercises can be done with or without the aid of a teacher. They are thus suitable both for self-study and classroom use.

In some exercises, you have to fill a gap with a word or phrase from a list. You can make the exercise more challenging by ignoring the list of suggested words and trying to find the correct word yourself. Then you can check with the key.

Instructions to the exercises

One of the main criteria of this book is to enable you to do exercises quickly and effectively, with minimal writing. In most cases (particularly in Chapters 1, 2, 3, 4, and 5), no instructions are given. This is because all you have to do is select the correct word from a choice of words that are in bold. Note that in some cases there may be more than one correct answer.

Keys to the exercises

The keys (answers) to the exercises appear immediately below the exercise, but in a smaller font. The idea is that you don't have to flip to the back of the book to find the answers. This should speed up the process of doing the exercises.

Words and phrases in parentheses indicate that these are alternative solutions to the ones outside parentheses, but they are probably less commonly used.

Words and phrases separated by a slash (e.g. which/that) indicate that both solutions are equally valid.

In some cases, the answers given are subjective. This is due to the fact that there may be only very subtle differences in meaning between certain words. Additionally, the same word may be used in a different way in different disciplines. In some contexts two words may be synonyms, in others not. If in doubt, consult with your tutor or English teacher.

If you disagree with any of the answers, then please feel free to email me with your suggested solution: adrian.wallwork@gmail.com

Cross-referencing with other books in the series

There are two types of books in this series: guides/manuals and exercise books.

1. Guides/Manuals:

English for Research: Usage, Style and Grammar – designed to resolve your doubts about the grammar, usage, and style of academic English.

English for Writing Research Papers – everything you need to know about how to write a paper that referees will recommend for publication.

English for Academic Correspondence and Socializing – tips for responding to editors and referees, networking at conferences, understanding fast-talking native English speakers, using Google Translate, and much more. No other book like this exists on the market.

English for Presentations at International Conferences – all the tricks for overcoming your fear of presenting in English at a conference.

2. Exercise Books

English for Academic Research: Grammar/Vocabulary/Writing Exercises – these three books of exercises practice the rules and guidelines given in the guides/manuals (there are, however, no exercises directly related to the Presentations book).

1.44 adverbs of time

Insert the words below into the spaces:

ago, back, for, in, in, now, now, over, since, still, still, until

English (1) _____ has a lot of irregular verbs, though not as many as 1000 years (2) _____ and a few irregular nouns (mouse, mice), but the general trend has been to clean the language of its redundant parts.

(3) _____ the 1930s this process was organic, for example, no conscious decision was made to remove endings from verbs to indicate the first and second persons; interestingly (4) _____ about 50% of native speakers omit the s of the third person. But starting (5) _____ the 1930s researchers began looking at what makes a text readable and so-called 'fog' indexes were produced that indicate the level of non-essential words and phrases that make a text more dense and sentences longer and thus more difficult to read. (6) _____ 1952, Robert Gunning, an American businessman, wrote a book called The Technique of Clear Writing in which he stated that texts with an average of 20 words per sentence were difficult to read.

(7) _____ the 1960s, great efforts have been made to make writing easier to understand – the most evident being to be concise, only give the information that is strictly necessary and use the simplest possible way to express any concept. (8) _____ in the 2010s there are many books on the topic which sell millions of copies in the English speaking world, thus highlighting how important readability is considered to be.

The biggest irregularity is of course English spelling and pronunciation. (9) _____ the centuries various attempts have been made to simplify the spelling, and the differences in US and UK spelling are a reflection of some minimal attempts in the USA dating (10) _____ to the 19th century to make the spelling of some words more logical. The reason that English spelling has not been simplified is that changes in the spelling would mean losing the etymology of the word. And of course, you cannot force people to change their pronunciation. Thus at least (11) _____ the foreseeable future there will (12) _____ be a wide gap between spelling and pronunciation.

2.23 various link words 2

(1) Since / When writing first began, there was little or no punctuation. Punctuation was introduced many hundreds of years later to help the reader. Punctuation tells us (2) both / when we can pause and helps us to see connections between the elements in the sentence. Readability (3) however / thus has a visual element to it as well. This visual element is (4) also / besides affected by how we read. Today, much reading is done directly from a screen, (5) other than / rather than from a hard copy. (6) Because / Why we generally want information fast, particularly (7) since / when searching on the Internet, we tend to scan. Scanning means not reading each individual word (8) but / yet jumping forwards three or more words (or sentences) at a time. The distance that we jump (in terms of the number of words or sentences) depends on the value that those words are adding in our search for information. (9) If / Yet they add no value we tend to jump further. (10) If / When we continue to get no value, instead of scanning left to right along a line of text, we scroll from top to bottom. We (11) thus / still read vertically (12) instead of / rather than horizontally until we find what we want.

This has huge implications for you as a writer. (13) If / When you want your reader to read your paper in depth, (14) then / thus you cannot afford to fill your sentences with redundancy. (15) If / When you write a series of very long sentences, you will encourage your reader to scan and scroll. This means that they may never see / read the key information contained within all the redundancy.

Writing a readable text entails being able to understand the nature of communication: thinking about your audience and the impact of how you organize your thoughts and words. (16) If / Unless you write a readable text, you will find personal satisfaction not in how erudite and elegant your phrases sound, (17) but / however in the ease with which you allow your readers to absorb your ideas. Remember that no one will be under any obligation to read your paper. (18) If / When readers don't find it useful, (19) either / or interesting, (20) both / or at least pleasurable, (21) and / however they have the feeling that it was not written with them in mind, they will simply stop reading. Your findings will (22) only / then be lost in oblivion.

Chapter 9 Emails

9.1 enquiring about possible placement 1

Dear Professor Smith,

We (1) met / knew last month when you were doing a seminar at the Department of Biology. I am (2) student / a student of Professor Ihsan (Vibravoid Project). You mentioned it might be possible for me to (3) job / work at your lab (4) for / from two months this summer.

I was wondering (5) whether / that the invitation is still open, if so (6) would / might June to July (7) fit / suit in with your plans? My department will, of course, cover (8) all / whole my costs.

I would be (9) appreciate / grateful if you could let me know (10) by / within the next ten days so that I will (11) again / still be in time to book (12) cheap / economic flights and get my accommodation organized.

I look forward to (13) hear / hearing from you.

9.2 enquiring about possible placement 2

Dear Professor Janson

I am a Ph.D. student at the University of San Salvador. I (1) attended / frequented the ACE-Y conference last week and I (2) found / fund your seminar very interesting, the part about the finite element formulation was (3) particularly / particular useful.

I saw on your webpage (4) that / which it is possible to have a placement (5) period / stage in your lab. It (6) would / will be a real pleasure for me to join your research group and do some (7) further / ulterior research (8) in / into the formulation of an efficient finite element for the adhesive layer.

The area where I think I (9) could / will really add value would be in enhancing adhesive strength. I have attached a paper and (10) any / some recent results, which I hope you will find both interesting and useful. I believe my approach could work in conjunction with (11) yours / your and really improve efficiency.

If it would (12) fit / suit you, I could come (13) from / since April next year, for a six (14) month / months period. I would be able to get funding (15) by / from my university to cover the costs of a placement period, so I need (16) any / no grant or scholarship.

Please (17) find attached / in attachment my CV with the complete list of my publications and a letter of recommendation (18) by / from my tutor, Professor Shankar.

Thank you in advance for (19) any / some help you (20) may / will be able to give me.

Insert the correct preposition into the spaces. In some cases no preposition is required (marked  $\emptyset$  in the key).

I am currently working (1) _____ a paper that I would like to submit (2) _____ the journal's special issue (3) _____ the conference. The paper is the extension (4) _____ the work that I presented as a poster (5) _____ the conference, which I think you saw. The draft is still (6) _____ quite an early stage, but I would really appreciate your input.

I know that you have a lot (7) _____ experience in this area and I am sure my paper would really benefit (8) _____ your input. (9) _____ any case, I have what I think are some really important new results, so I hope that you will find this paper of interest too. Obviously I don't want to take up too much (10) _____ your time, so perhaps you might just focus (11) _____ the Discussion and Results. Also, if you could quickly browse (12) _____ the Literature Cited to make sure I haven't missed (13) _____ any important papers (yours are all there by the way!).

The deadline for submission is (14) _____ Oct 10, so if you could get your revisions back to me (15) _____ the end of this month (i.e. September) that would be great.

I do appreciate the fact that you must be very busy, so please do not hesitate to let me know if you don't have the time.

So although it is a year later, I was wondering whether you (1) _____ have time to correct my CV (see attached). Unfortunately I (2) _____ it for tomorrow – my professor only told me about it today. I know it is asking a lot but if you (3) _____ find 10 minutes to correct it, I (4) _____ really appreciate it and I am sure it (5) _____ make a significant difference to my chances of getting the post.

I hope all is well with you. I was wondering if you (1) _____ do me a couple of favors. Attached are two documents. The first is an Abstract that I (2) _____ like you to read and hear your comments on. It is actually 50 words over the limit required by the conference organizers, so if you (3) _____ find any way to remove a few words that would be great. Also attached is the proposal for the request for funding – for some reason I (4) _____ find the email addresses of the people in the Research Unit in Madrid, so (5) _____ you possibly forward it to them? Thanks. Then finally, you mentioned last time we met that you had a useful bibliographical reference that you thought I (6) _____ look up, do you think you (7) _____ send me it. ### 9.10 chasing a request

appreciate, check, get, hope, know, look, need, read, spare

I was wondering if you had had time to look at my email dated 10 February (see below).

I (1) _____ that you must receive a lot of requests such as mine, but I really (2) _____ your input as no one else has your expertise in this particular field. In reality, it would be enough if you could just (3) _____ the last two pages of the Discussion (pages 12 and 13), just so that you could (4) _____ that I have not reached any erroneous conclusions. I very much (5) _____ that my results might be of interest to you too as they diverge from what you reported in your paper. I have a deadline for submission on the 20 April, so it would be perfect if you could (6) _____ your comments to me by about 10 April.

I (7) _____ that this is a lot to ask, particularly as you have never even met me, but if you could (8) _____ 10–15 minutes of your time, I would be extremely grateful.

Dear All

(1) _____, I'm sorry it's taken me until today to answer your email but I have been immersed with sorting out problems with our new intake of international students.

I completely understand your concerns, (2) _____ I have sketched out the following solution to the section on funding.

(3) _____ we are going to be collaborating with several other institutes, I think we should take into account that some of the costs will be shared among the partners. (4) _____ we could reduce the estimate of the costs associated with the quarterly meetings.

The amount allocated to new equipment seems a little excessive, (5) _____ we were funded for new equipment only last year in the other project.

(6) _____, I think that we could eliminate items c–e on your list. (7) _____, I completely agree with the addition of items f–h.

Is everyone happy with this solution? (8) _____, I can go ahead and update the proposal accordingly.

Congratulations also (6) _____ your paper which I thought was excellent, I re-read it again on the plane coming home. (7) _____ the way, have you had time to look at those notes I left you?

You mentioned during that delicious dinner on the last night that you might be interested in setting up a collaboration between our departments. I think that (8) _____ be an excellent idea – have you had any (9) _____ thoughts about it?

9.13 submission of paper

Dear Professor Seinfeld

I would like to (1) _____ for publication in the Journal of Future Education the attached paper (2) _____ A Proposal for Radical Educational Reform by Adrian Wallwork and Anna Southern.

Our (3) _____ was to test the efficiency of short vs long degree courses. Our (4) _____ of 15,000 male and female graduates aged between 35 and 55 (5) _____ that they would have performed far better in their careers from a financial point of view, if they had undertaken a one-year course at university rather than the traditional three to four-year course.

Our key (6) _____ is that people on shorter courses will earn up to 15% more during their lifetime. The (7) _____ of this are not only for the graduates themselves but also (i) governments could save considerable amounts of money, and (ii) universities would be free to accept more students.

We (8) _____ that our findings will be of great interest to readers of your journal, particularly due to their counterintuitive (9) _____ and the fact they go against the general (10) _____ that claims that university courses should be increased in length.

This (11) _____ has not been published before and is not being considered for (12) _____ elsewhere.

I look forward to hearing from you.

9.15 letter to editor regarding referees' reports

confirmed, dedicated, fixed, perplexed, thought, undergone

First of all, we acknowledge, as the second reviewer correctly noted, that the English and the reference section needed improvement. We have now (1) _____ the references and the paper has (2) _____ a thorough revision by a mother tongue professional. However, we are a little (3) _____ by the reviewer's comments on the amount of the paper devoted to actual work descriptions. We have (4) _____ of ways of addressing this problem but in any case we believe that in reality about 70 % of the paper is (5) _____ to work descriptions – and this would seem to be (6) _____ by the positive and constructive comments from the other two reviewers.
